

REMINDER/Eastern Pennsylvania Legislators and Business Leaders Join Fundraising Efforts for Memorial to United Airlines Flight 93

REMINDER...for Monday (August 26)

--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Philadelphia Suburban Water

-- Sale of Bracelets Memorializing September 11 Will Benefit Fund to Build a Memorial At the Crash Site --

WHO: Family members of flight 93 victims Philadelphia Suburban Water Co. Chairman and CEO, Nicholas DeBenedictis
Pennsylvania State Senator (Allegheny County), Jane Orie
Area Chamber of Commerce Officials including Rob Powelson Majority Leader, Pennsylvania House of Representatives, John Perzel
Additional area legislators and business leaders

WHAT: Press conference to launch the eastern Pennsylvania efforts to raise funds for a memorial to United flight 93, which crashed on September 11, 2001 in Somerset County Pennsylvania.

Accomplished musician Kristy Jackson will be on hand to perform her popular and inspiring song, "Little Did She Know (She'd Kissed a Hero)," which she composed in honor of the flight victims.

WHEN: Monday, August 26, 2002, 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Philadelphia Marriott West
111 Crawford Avenue, West Conshohocken, PA

CONTACT: Philadelphia Suburban Water by Tattar Cutler--DBC
Lori Bookbinder, 215/957-0300
Mobile (8/26 only): 215/620-7899
lbookbinder@dbcommunications.net or

Linda Woody, 215/957-0300
Mobile (8/26 only): 609/841-4881
lwoody@dbcommunications.net