Aqua Pennsylvania and Class of 1963 of Lansdowne-Aldan High School (Now Penn Wood High School) Make Donation to Help School Recover from Recent Vandalism and Theft

Aqua Pennsylvania, Inc.:

Who: Aqua Pennsylvania, Inc. (Aqua) Chairman and President of Lansdowne-Aldan High School (now Penn Wood High School) Class of 1963 Nicholas DeBenedictis; other alumni of the Class of 1963; William Penn School District Superintendent Joseph Bruni, Penn Wood High School Principal D. Brandon Cooley, Assistant Principals Katherine Lawson and Ursula Willis; Penn Wood students from the Class of 2014.

What: The presentation of a $1,000 donation to the high school will take place at the front of the high school.

Aqua Pennsylvania Chairman Nicholas DeBenedictis, an alumnus of Lansdowne-Aldan High School and class president the Class of 1963, has joined his class's other alumni who are collectively donating $1,000 to their alma mater to help with the school's efforts to recover from recent vandalism and theft.

The Class of 1963, in preparing for their 50th class reunion, collected a surplus of funds, which they elected to donate to the school. When DeBenedictis heard about the reunion steering committee's idea, he offered to donate funds from the utility's foundation to bring the collective donation to $1,000.
