

Philadelphia Suburban to Pay $.18 Quarterly Cash Dividend Tomorrow; Five-for-Four Stock Split and a 7.64 Percent Cash Dividend Increase Will be Payable December 1, 2000

BRYN MAWR, Pa. Aug. 31, 2000 - Philadelphia Suburban Corporation (NYSE:PSC) said it will pay its regular $.18 quarterly cash dividend to shareholders of record on August 15, 2000, tomorrow, September 1, 2000.

The payment will be succeeded by a December 1, 2000 cash dividend payment that reflects a 7.64 percent increase above the September 1 quarterly dividend payment as well as a five-for-four stock split effected in the form of a 25 percent stock dividend.

The PSC Board of Directors approved the increase in the cash dividend (from $.18 to $.19375 per share, which on an annualized basis represents an increase to $.775, from the current annual rate of $.72 per share) and the stock split at its August meeting. Both the increased cash dividend and the stock split will be payable to shareholders of record on November 15, 2000.

The new quarterly cash dividend rate will be $.155 per share on the increased number of shares from the stock split or $.62 per share annualized for dividends declared by the Board of Directors after the December 1, 2000 dividend.

This is the tenth cash dividend increase granted by the company in the last nine years. PSC last increased its quarterly dividend 5.9 percent on September 1, 1999. This will be the company's third stock split effected in the form of a stock dividend in five years: PSC issued a 50 percent stock distribution in July 1996, and a 33 percent stock distribution in January 1998.

Shareholders of record on November 15, 2000 will receive one additional share for every four shares held. Distribution of the additional shares is planned at the close of business on December 1, 2000.
