

The following communication regarding the merger between American Water Works Company, Inc. ("American Water") and Essential Utilities, Inc. ("Essential") was sent by John Griffith, President and Chief Executive Officer of American Water, to employees of American Water via e-mail on September 18, 2026.

Building momentum through integration planning

From: John Griffith, President and CEO

As integration planning efforts continue between American Water and Essential, I wanted to share an update on our progress and what it means for our employees.

We continue to make positive progress toward completing the proposed merger and remain encouraged by the momentum we are seeing across the regulatory approval landscape. Most recently, we're pleased to have entered into a non-unanimous settlement agreement in the merger approval proceeding in Pennsylvania. The settlement is subject to review and approval by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (PUC).

Along with approvals already received in Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia and the expiration of the waiting period under the federal Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, these milestones represent meaningful and timely progress in the merger approval process.

At the same time, teams across both organizations continue planning to operate as a combined company. While Day 1 is an important milestone, integration efforts will continue well beyond closing as we bring together our organizations, align processes and systems, and build our future as a stronger combined company for the benefit of our customers and employees.

As more decisions are finalized, we plan to share answers to many employee questions and update our FAQs to reflect new or updated information. You can expect to hear more about additional confirmed organizational roles for the combined company later this fall.

Our teams are also developing resources designed to help employees understand what to expect, and where to find support, on Day 1 and beyond. While there is still a lot of important work to do, we currently expect to close the merger with Essential by the end of the first quarter of 2027, and I am encouraged by the collaboration, professionalism and commitment reflected in our planning efforts.

Thank you for your continued engagement and focus as we continue to plan for a seamless merger and integration.
